Name: ____________________________________________

Degree status and major subject of study (e.g., second-year grad student in Computer Science, senior majoring in Bioinformatics, auditor from the Department of Computer Engineering, etc.):

Background/previous study in mathematics, probability and statistics? (Please give course numbers and brief descriptions of courses taken here at UCSC and/or brief descriptions of courses taken elsewhere, work experience, etc.):

Why are you interested in this class? Are there any particular topics from the theory and applications of stochastic processes that you would like to see covered/discussed?