BME 207: Grant Proposal

Next draft, full proposal, due Nov 25 (a Wed)
In-class discussion and grant review: Dec 1
Final version due: Dec 10

Final grant format
Time frame: 3 years or less
Single-spaced, 11 pt Arial or 12pt Times; 1” margins):

- Abstract plus Aims: 1 page max (including figures)
- Background and significance: 3 pages max (including figures)
- Research Plan: 4 pages max (including figures)
  This section should reiterate the aims, and include methods, possible outcomes, and alternative approaches, as appropriate

- References: 50 max

Successful NIH grants on the web:

Also see Lecture 4 notes, and the Research Project Evaluation Criteria, on our website
Focus on Significance, Innovation, and Approach (not Investigator and Environment).

Attempt to propose a problem that is interesting regardless of the outcome