Homework 7: Due Wednesday, April 27

Be prepared to make a brief (1-3 minute) presentation on a social topic on which you would like to do further research. Be sure to cover the following points:

1. Which of the following choices you are leaning towards for your final project: Business Design/ Action Project/ Programming Project/ Research Project?
2. Ideally, mention one social issue/topic/project that you are most inclined to engage for further research in the next 2-3 weeks.
3. What is the source of your interest in the project? Describe some of the following: your previous experience/expertise (participation in class/ clubs/ activities etc.) on this issue. Describe an event or individuals who may be motivating factors.
4. Give some thought to what kind of research would you be planning to undertake to gain further insight into the problem and/or articulate the issue to your potential customers/clients/stakeholders.

Look over Project 2 preview to gain a better understanding of where this effort is moving towards.
